Meals on our tour in the Plateau Putorana.

Our tour is a tour expedition tourist class (not a tour VIP-class). The group is on self-service.

Tourists prepare their own food from the products provided, self-clean and prepare the fish caught.

Guides give advice and provide tour assistance if it is necessary.

The alcohol is prohibited in this tour.

There is a stove on board. You can use it to cook the food or warm tea, and a full set of utensils for cooking and eating in the boat and in the campfire. On the route there is the possibility to bake pancakes, tortillas.

In this section, we present a list of products that will be provided to each group on the route for self-catering, and the approximate menu on which you can orientate during cooking. The displayed menu is exemplary. Practice shows that groups cook meals on request, they do not strictly adhere to menu.

In the village Svetlogorsk before the start of the route, if desired, the group can independently buy at shops premium products, as well as a variety of delicacies from local people (venison, fish, eggs) - subject to availability.
